DÉCOR RESOURCES GROW IN ATLANTA BEFORE JULY 2019 MARKET

ATLANTA – May 14, 2019 – Twenty-two design-driven showrooms are opening new locations, reimagining their spaces or renewing their leases in preparation for The Atlanta International Gift at Home Furnishings Market®, July 9-15, 2019. The Market’s Home Décor Collection features nearly 2,000 lighting, accent furniture, rugs, wall décor, casual furniture and linens brands presented in 300 showrooms on 12 floors.

“The décor offerings in Atlanta continue to evolve and expand,” said Scott Eckman, International Market Centers (IMC) executive vice president, president of Furniture and Home Décor Leasing. “The result is a trend-driven presentation of the unique finds, accent pieces and lifestyle products east coast retailers and residential and commercial designers seek.”

The six new showrooms opening in the Home Décor Collection are America Arts (fine oil paintings and frames); Djem Unique Design (handmade upholstery furniture and accessories made in Turkey); Lands Downunder International (throw blankets and scarves woven in Italy and New Zealand); Mastour Est 1890 (Oriental and European carpets plus rare, antique, vintage and art rugs); Soicher-Marin Gallery (art resource for interior designers); and Welland Industries, LLC (shelf, storage, organizers, accent furniture and home décor). An additional five showrooms expand for the market: Boutross Imports (handmade linens from around the world), Chive (vases), Classic Home (home furnishings), D.V. Kap HOME & Canaan Co. (pillows) and Mainly Baskets (hand-woven furniture and baskets). Curia & Co. (commercial and residential furnishings and accents) relocates.

The Commercial Design collection continues to grow with six new showrooms, one relocation / expansion, three new lines joining established representative groups and a new office space for industry technology provider The Company. Opening in July are: Hubbardton Forge (hand-forged luxury lighting); Lacefield Designs (commercial-quality printed textiles, decorative throw pillows and outdoor pillows); Novateur Design Solutions (representing Affra, ATI Wall Surfaces,
