PRESS CREDENTIALS QUALIFICATIONS AND RULES/REGULATIONS:

- All members of the working press must register with valid credentials/media verification.
- Qualified media representatives must attach a valid business card (with individual's name, title and the name of an approved media outlet); a valid outlet-issued credential or the masthead from an approved media outlet with individual's name and title listed.
- Freelance writers and photographers must present a letter of assignment from an approved outlet. Freelance writers or columnists not on an assignment must provide a copy of an industry-relevant bylined article, published within the past six months in an approved media outlet.
- Electronic media representatives, including editors of websites and blogs, must present proof of an existing site with relevant editorial content and proof of circulation.
- Previous attendance does not guarantee approval for press credentials.
- Submit one form per each person requesting credentials.
- All photographers/those wishing to photograph the show must fill out a separate photographer application.

WHO QUALIFIES FOR PRESS REGISTRATION?

- Editorial members of approved print and broadcast outlets may register as working press. Advertising/Sales media may also register, but will be identified as SALES.
- Eligibility is subject to approval by AmericasMart Atlanta

WHO DOES NOT QUALIFY FOR PRESS REGISTRATION?

- All non-editorial employees and/or representatives
- Marketing personnel (PR, creative services, etc.)
- Writers & publishers of personal or corporate newsletters
- Family/friends of approved media
- Any individual whose purpose for attending, in AmericasMart's judgment, is for reasons other than generating news coverage.

Book authors' eligibility will be determined on a case-by-case basis.*

Non-eligible representatives (defined above) can not be credentialed by the media relations department.

PR representatives must register as an Exhibitor (and will need to work directly with the client to obtain a badge).

Note: Misrepresentation of position and/or publications/news outlet will prohibit you and your organization from future AmericasMart events.
